ABOUT ME:

Hello, myself Prachi Jambhulkar, graduate in architecture from Sir J. J. College Of Architecture. I constantly strive to expand my knowledge and skill in the field of Architecture and design. I consider myself Creative, passionate, motivated and hardworking for Architecture.

My objective is to join the firm to maximize my learning experience and contribute to the organisation.

To my visual communication, architecture has always been about it's aesthetics and functionality. I focus on the details, the process and keeping it simple.
